

“And Then God Said... Then I Said... Then He Said” ...

Volume One

Introduction:

Do you believe in God? Is there a God? Is God male or female? If there is a God, does He intervene in the affairs of humanity? If there is a God, why has He chosen to have His voice heard now? What is religion, is it good or bad? What is Spirituality, is it good or bad? Why do so many atrocities plague humanity?

Is there a “Soul?” If there is a “Soul,” what are “Soul Contracts?” Are they real or imaginary? Do we really have a “Spirit World?” Do we have other off-world families working on our behalf?

Is there really an “Illuminati”? If there is an Illuminati how does this dark force impinge upon Human destiny?

In this book, “God’s Book,” God answers all these questions while presenting a full dialog on other pertinent subjects. God also conducts a question and answer forum pertaining to the ascendancy of the “Human Spirit.”

This book contains information God transmitted to Celestial (Celest) Blue Star of the Pleiades, David of Arcturus and Suzanne (Suzy) Ward, a dedicated “Way Shower.”

There are also special messages from Blue Star, Matthew, Hatonn, Melena, Tomas, Serapis Bey, Horiss, Commander Theda, Mother Mary and one other very special unexpected Voice who has asked to be heard.

When the world was young, everyone knew without question of their eternal bond with the Omnipresence - also known by many as God. Over time this initial knowingness has been lost to all but a few indigenous cultures. God has awaited a timeline, an epoch that would come to pass when disorganized chaos would be assailing the Earth and the Children of Earth. We have now arrived at this critical mass. God told us His/Her truth needs to be spoken, heard and understood by His/Her Children once again, without prejudice. We have no idea why we were chosen to write God’s book, it is not something we ever expected to do.

Once we overcame the surprise of it all we obviously did not choose to argue with His/Her Divine Wisdom. Our communiqués with Him/Her self are not an unnatural or unique occurrence and yes, we are speaking here of two-way communications. His/Her messages have been lost over time and He/She understood far too well that each of us needed reassurance or remembrance of His/Her unconditional loving presence. God felt these communications with us would better serve all peoples if presented in a written format that everyone could read at their own leisure. We did not have any set program of our own, God gave us the chapter titles and told us to use His/Her exact words and God wrote His/Her own presentation-literally. God's candor and humor throughout this book will undoubtedly catch many of you off guard.

Our experience was humbling, exhilarating and sacred, yet touched us on a personal level which is difficult to explain without a common point of reference unless you have had the experience yourself. We can only offer you the truth; we did not in any way attempt to have our own personal feelings enter into the communication. If this book touches you personally and Spiritually then you will know that God has successfully fulfilled His/Her mission to reunite you with "All That Is."

This book is intentionally unedited.

Foreword

Celest — In every lifetime experienced here on the Earth Star planet, each person who enters here does so with the innate ability to know “right” from “wrong.” Each “knows” to act in accordance with Universal Laws which were Created by the God of this universe, as well as by Other Highly Evolved Beings. Throughout the history of this planet certain “teachings” are sent to all of humanity for the pure purpose of maintaining Spiritual stability within the hearts and minds of each individual.

Spirituality does not “know” if an individual is black or white, yellow or brown. Spirituality is the nucleus of All That Will Ever Be. This dynamic force is an exquisite extension of all the Higher Forms of Creation; of love without condition. The God of this universe, in His wondrous compassion for all other aspects of HimSelf, gifts each person with “awakening moments.” These are the life changing, life defining, episodes that prompt each Soul to use their “free expression” (free will), to release all conditionings that have been imposed upon them from the time of their emergence here as infants.

A part of these awakening moments is the timely release of God’s Truths, which are intended to re-inform each person of the true existence of HimSelf in all His myriad forms; thereby negating the bastardization of His Truth. Dis-information has reigned here for as long as humanity has been. Although there is never a day gone by when the true realities cannot be found, it is when humanity as a whole is on the verge of great transformation that the most important of all His Words are once again heard. This is in part for the purpose of not merely enlightening the populace, but also to render staunch support for all those who have endured so much in their quest to “be a difference,” oftentimes at great personal cost.

Of all the reasons that are relevant to the evolution of the human race, the greatest reason of all is to ensure that humanity can and will ascend and be “in awareness” once again in conscious fashion, that each person is “God in physicality.” We are now in the mid-time of the “balancing of the scales.” This is the time period for the greatest ascension of the Light of All Lights on this planet, and the final severance from the dark. Those beings who are part of the “un-illuminated forces” and the people, who for whatever reason have chosen to refute the truth, are determining their own destinies. Although this madness has occurred before many, many times here, this time all truths of the Universe are melding to form into one concentric configuration. As a result, especially over the last two hundred years, many “Speakers” have either chosen to be the recipients of His Words, or were “elected” to do so.

Speaking for myself, I do not have any “remembrance” of “volunteering” for God's Book; I did not know this was part of my mission. On the afternoon of August 10, 2006, I went upstairs to take a nap, or so I thought. I was preparing to lie down and did not even have time to close my eyes when suddenly, poof... God appeared. He simply told me, telepathically of course, that He wanted me to write His book. I “intelligently” thought “what book?” God did not give me a moment to ask any questions. He simply showed me through “imagery” the title of the book and the cover that was to be Created. He was quite firm about the title being written exactly as He had stated. Well, after He “left,” I went downstairs to speak with David about this. I wanted to ask him if he would like to participate in the book. Of course I did ask and receive permission from God first. Come to think of it, I never did ask God, “Why me? Why now? What happened to my planned nap anyway?”

David — In short there was to be no compromising on the works He wished for us to transcribe for Him. We did learn from Him that it had been decided long ago that we were to be His messengers, His voice that is to be heard once again. For far too long the Children of the lesser gods have stated that their words are His Words. We are living in a timeline to correct all misinformation and lies delivered through corruption and deceitful enterprises that are in opposition of His Truths. As time progressed and He slowly started sending us His “topics of discussion” in the form of chapter titles, we had a “quantum thought.” We thought it would be a good thing to ask Suzy Ward if she wanted to be part of the book too. We asked God and He said, “Ask her and see if she can make the time.” So we did. Suzy is not only a good friend of ours on a personal level; she, too, is in contact with many other “off world beings.” Of course it took her approximately 15 seconds to “jump on board.” As you will see when reading the book, many other “off world family” members, of all of ours, excitedly asked to participate in this work.

There comes a time in everyone’s life when the search for the ultimate truth, meanings and purpose to their existence becomes paramount in their minds. “Now” is that moment. In my own earlier years I could not bring myself to follow any religious practices, there was a gnawing at me each time I tried. I know now that I had already researched those for validity in previous lifetimes, guess you could say, “been there, done that, don’t need to go down that road again.” I must tell you of the High sensation one receives when re-connecting with the Almighty, there is a peace and calmness to be felt that equals the calmness and serenity of being in a mother’s womb. These words you shall read in this book are God’s words, His messages to all of us because of His eternal love for all His Children. I, for one, shall lend Him my ear.

It took me many years to comprehend that I was, we are, all of us, “The Ones” we have been waiting for. God's patience with my questions, His calmness, His delightful humor, His unexpected bursts of laughter while working within the confines of my self-imagined, self-imposed, once limited understanding, gave me a much more enhanced outlook on life. His guidance, His friendship, His trust, His love, needs to be shared by all. I say "He," for the ease of communicating His words; He Himself does not limit Himself to one energy pattern or modality. He is androgynous as are all of us, and as such you may call Him by whatever name you see fit. I understand that the possibility exists that there will be resistance to the acceptance of this God-umentary. I can only speak for myself and say, "yes, these are His Words, not ours"; I know this, because I was there.

Suzy – I feel it's a joy and a privilege to receive contributions for this collection of invaluable messages. And it's good that I do because God says this is a responsibility I chose, just as I did with the Matthew Books, which He told me are HIS books and so is this one. Since I don't remember signing up for any of this, I think of my participation as a natural extension of my passion for peace, truth, fairness, and spiritual wisdom to prevail in our world. Messages like these that you are about to read let the light in our souls spark our consciousness to remember that we are eternal gods and goddesses, all of us. We have unlimited potential to help restore Earth to her Eden self and know (once again!) that we are members of God's universal family.

My 35 years immersed in Christian dogma are showing when I say "He" meaning God, who is neither only "he" nor "she," but androgynous, the perfect balance of energies. What we call the Supreme Being in our universe isn't important. But knowing that each of us is an inseparable part of that being and so are all the other souls in our universe IS important. Explaining this and more is the purpose of this book.

The words of God have not been altered by us in any way.

"And Then God Said... Then I Said... Then He Said..."

Chapter 4

Awareness

Celest – God, we know that it was You, not any of us, who chose the chapter titles, why is it that your selection of "Awareness" is so important to this book?

God – "Awareness" is a term that can be taken in many ways. I KNOW that it is important because of all that I have always seen on the Earth; all those billions of peoples who have not been "in awareness" for many a year, some not for many a lifetime. It is when the curtain of your "remembrances" falls when you reincarnate here, that reality takes a back seat to "illusions and deceptions." Many of My Children feel they are aware of all that is truly occurring, yet in fact they are not. They may know some truth from deception, but the heavy burdens they each carry while walking this walk, causes them to at times... too many times for some... accept that which is false, or worse, replace truth with the illusions of reality. This is obviously not a good thing.

It is important that all of My Children come to terms with truth, that they come to terms with themselves and have confrontations with the "devil," if necessary. There are different levels of "KNOWINGNESS," which is "Awareness" in a different guise. When you KNOW something, it means that "you are sure on a conscious level" about a person, place or thing that has some connection with you in everyday practical life. Unfortunately, too many people take it for granted that what they think they KNOW, and what they really KNOW, are the same. In fact quite often, they are two separate entities. It is like My sky, there is "day" and there is "night," one is different from the other in APPEARANCE, yet they are each an aspect of the ONE sky. It does not mean, "day will become night and night would become day," it is the reality of two aspects of one entity sharing themselves as one unit.

Many people KNOW that the conditions of their lives are, to say the least, in disarray, they then begin to contribute the mess of their lives to all different people, places and things which they THINK have somehow contributed to the situations. Some people will actually have the...strength...to acknowledge that in actual fact, only they themselves allowed such and such to happen. Had they been AWARE that none of those distasteful or tawdry events could have occurred unless that individual PERMITTED them to take place, then OBVIOUSLY any sane person would have kept it from happening in the first place. I have just given you a very practical example of any everyday situation; I did so because it is My hope that in this manner you will be able to follow the rest of what I have to say.

What occurs on the conscious levels of KNOWING can be easily filtered through the "intellect bugaboo." Don't get me wrong, I love the intellect, after all I did Create it, you know. BUT it was not My Intent for the intellect to control the AWARENESS which you each bear as an aspect of your Soul Self. The AWARENESS of all that you each are, all that you each have ever been and the POTENTIAL of all that you still MAY ascend to, lies quietly in the Super Conscious realm of yourself. The Super Conscious can and does transmit the AWARENESS into and through your subconscious. However, the subconscious can filter through to you only as much as your CONSCIOUS MIND can accept at any given moment.

This is one of the primary reasons that the dark energies have had so much success here on this planet. The "mind" is a gigantic computer, in a sense; it had followed the dictates of the impulses of "reasoning and logic," for the most part, so of course those dark ones did all they could to control "your computer." "AWARENESS" has nothing to do with the computer; AWARENESS is a subtle realization of reality, the "real stuff," not the manmade variety. AWARENESS is a by-product of Soul KNOWLEDGE; the AWARENESS FACTOR cannot take its place of pre-eminence within the mind, heart and Soul of any of My Children until there is a blending together of "mind and matter."

You see, many are born into AWARENESS here, but lose or temporarily forget about that intangibly tangible aspect of their Soul until or unless something jars them terribly awake from the sometimes self-induced stupor. As long as the conscious mind controls the thought forms, actions and deeds of each person, or groups of like-minded individuals, AWARENESS must await the needed catalyst before walking forth inside of you in its great majestic form. Are you getting My Picture yet? If you place this situation under your nonphysical eyes and scrutinize the conditioning that had taken place which subjugated you to the lower realms of KNOWING, then you shall better understand why AWARENESS is the key to your own immortality and why the dark so fears this Aspect of Soul.

Many of you KNOW that you are not “separate” from your AWARENESS, you KNOW that the AWARENESS is an integral part of who and what you are. It is a “part,” not “APART” from you. It is when that KNOWING reaches the conscious mind that the Super Conscious, the subconscious and the conscious mind can interrelate and quietly integrate the SOUL memory you have been permitted to bear with you. These are the memories that are dependent in great measure upon your individual abilities to ALLOW information to pass through the channels of your mind and thusly into your hearts; since this all actually originates as Soul MOVEMENTS, it will not pass back to Soul again, rather Soul will radiate more as Soul reaches upwards to bring you onto yet another plateau of BE-ING.

So AWARENESS must not only be thoroughly understood by you, it must be respected, cherished and honored. You each have a responsibility here and that is to willingly bring AWARENESS into conscious manifestation. It is no longer enough to say, “I am aware of all that is going on here,” NOW you must really KNOW what you are saying. The time for “lip service,” is over. The bridge that once existed between Nirvana and Earth is becoming a moot point. You no longer have “old-fashioned linear time” to fall back on; to once again assist you in “COMPLACENCY.” Whew!! Boy, am I glad about that!

MY BOOK could not be a complete “God Talks,” without you each knowing the importance of your own individual AWARENESS. AWARENESS, as a state of BE-ING, is you as Soul Self epitomizing your own ESSENCE. It does not mean that you have to walk around on tippy toes, afraid to make mistakes and expecting to be a “perfected being.” Perfection cannot be found on the Earth, YET you are each “perfect” in every nanosecond of your life. True, some more so than others, but what the heck, I MySelf am not perfect either, you know. Or, perhaps you don’t know.

Celest — OK, God, that is a very reasonable and non-logical explanation. This is what I wanted others to know also. Thank you, I will be back later in the chapter.

God — You are welcome and somehow I did think you had more to ask.

God (received by David) — In the greater cosmic realm, where all is known, there are many who believe that the universe was intended to unfold as it is, or was, or shall I say, “shall be.” I prefer to look at everything with optimism and I relish in seeing the bigger picture, knowing that everything is as it “should be.” One of the greatest truths of all is that Universal Events unfold as they should, in their own time, at their own pace. The universe is always on time. Now this does not make “all in perfection,” this simply draws into the realm of possibilities that which is the never ending desire to reach that state of perfection. I, just as you, am at all times evolving to the best of My own abilities. I am dependent upon each Soul Cluster and every individual within that Cluster to achieve their own awareness, their own understanding of all that affects the whole of Creation. It is at that time which “knowledge” comes into practice. We who are the guardians of all the Universes have a great responsibility to those whom we watch over. It is not Our chosen desires to watch you stumble and fall, yet Our responsibility requires us to allow you the freedom of choice to permit yourself to fall backwards and pick yourself up in order to learn from the experience without any outside interference. What would you accomplish if we removed all obstacles (lessons) before you had the experience? Nothing, would be the correct response here. We applaud your efforts to continuously attempt to better yourselves by laughing at your mistakes and dusting yourselves off, after picking yourselves up after a fall and trying again. When the work is done at the end of the day, is it not the compilation of your good efforts and deeds that paves the way into tomorrow’s enhancements?

I would like to share with you My thoughts on the “awareness perspective.” When all you do at every moment affects the rest of your conscious moments, would it not be in your best interests to become “one with yourself”? If becoming one with yourselves includes all the different aspects of yourselves, then would it not be prudent to analyze all these different parts of you and discard those that are no longer relevant? Then you can go on and enhance those parts of you that clearly state the Godliness that you each are. Would it not be also in your best interests to share what you have learned with those who are seeking the truth, so that they may come into awareness as well? Following further down this line of reasoning, would this conduct not sweep into other areas of your world that need to be altered, corrected or discarded? Of course it would, and that is how change comes about, by one person making a difference and BE-ING a difference. One step at a time, one Soul at a time when necessary, Our Work shall be done. If you had available to you a tool, or device, that would greatly improve your understanding of what transpires around you, would you not use it? Of course you would. That tool is there for the asking, I gifted it to you, it is your intuition. That is what makes you “thinking, reasoning, sentient beings,” instead of drones or clones.

Awareness is the “key.” Those who are in awareness know that the “key” is there for everyone’s enhancement and that you should never want to miss the opportunity to use a “key” that has been shown to you. Each “key” has a purpose; each unlocks a door of understanding to the next level of your ascension. The beginning of every moment in time begins with a purpose, one that is designated to be a catalyst which impacts on the whole. It is not I who steers your boat, that is something you do of your own free will. Since you and I are inseparable, then one might say, you steer Our boat.

Awareness of who you are and why you are here is again another “key” to understanding the mission that you have been chosen for. Or that which you have volunteered for. Each person’s mission is intertwined with all others, what is innocently thought of in one mind, attracts to itself all other similar thought forms. This in turn causes a ripple effect to all other life forms throughout the Universes, in all the different dimensional levels of Creation. This is part of the “Tapestry of Life” that you are weaving. Just as there are the Greater Weavings of the Universal Plan in action, there are also your own personal tapestries that you are Creating. Each individual’s tapestry adds substance and color to the whole. When you try something new, when the urge strikes you to spend a moment in awesome splendor, when you embrace another, or when you take a moment to step outside of yourself and enjoy the beauty of the moment, you are then existing in that moment. Are you not also adding another thread to your tapestry?

From where I exist I am aware of all your frustrations, I also see the radiant beauty that shines from within the deepest reaches of your hearts. I, too, sense your anguish and disappointment when things do not turn out the way you envisioned they should. Yet when I see the spark of awareness, of partial or complete understanding glowing within you, then I know you have awakened to the true meaning hidden behind the illusion. With each illusion cast away as a leaf in the wind, it becomes easier and easier for you to remove the veils that still lie before you. This is "awareness."

"Awareness" can also be a double-edged sword; it not only cuts through the illusions that have been created by others, it also cuts through the programming that you have nurtured and possess yourselves. When this occurs, the world becomes brighter and clearer to you, you see hope where before there was none. You see once again into the realm of possibilities, where all probabilities and limitless possibilities of joy, happiness and love unending exist. There is a time in everyone's life when the spark of awareness flares up and the beginnings of truth stir within them. This is the Soul's Voice calling out to you, urging you to find that peaceful place within your hearts, the place where you are One with The Creator, One with Creation, One with yourself, not to mention, one with Myself. The peace you find which can only be found within is joy for My Eyes to behold. I wish that all of you could truly understand how blessed you are.

Just as I see your anguish, I also feel your joy. When the light within you glows brightly, it touches deep into the Heart of Creation. This light radiates outward and touches all who are around you. That moment then can be shared by many, yet its beauty is held within the bearer of the light, as a jeweled treasure that money can never buy. The time of manifestation is upon you, yet many of you are unaware of that which is needed. You need Soul Food, you need to renew your Spiritual Connection with your universal families, with all universal truths, to reacquaint yourselves with Universal Laws.

You think of Creating or manifesting what will make you happy; you dream of riches without knowing the most simplistic of truths. That truth is, "all you need, you already have; all that is desired is within your reach; all that would make your corner of the world seem much brighter is already there." All that is required is understanding that it is. Visualize it, see it, feel it, touch it, call it to you and like a warm, gentle breeze, it shall be yours. So many of your insecurities are self-created, yet many others have been force fed to you throughout the ages. It is up to each of you to see through those veils of illusions and quite adamantly state out loud, "no more, I see clearly now, I am de-programmed!"

David – God, I am sure you remember when I myself stated out loud, "I am de-programmed," what peace I felt and the weight that was instantaneously lifted from my shoulders. OK, so how does stress affect one's awareness?

God – David, I remember it well, I thought I was going to have to send you a lifeline to keep you from floating upwards into the ionosphere. I am also well aware of the stressful times you are all living in, and that stress is the great destroyer of common sense and any sentient responses. Stress removes the sentient awareness of the realities of any situation.

Stress is a subchapter in the world of fear. Fear itself is the unraveling of all senses. Fear is created; it is not natural, never has been and never will be. Fear gets in the way of living; it holds you Earthbound and captures your ability to soar without limits. When entering any given situation, whether it was self-created or some situation that requires your presence, always remember to surround yourself in "The White Light, The Christed Light," and always remember that I, too, am there with you. I promised you I would never leave you alone, remember? And promises made are promises kept.

Stress is a self-inflicted disease; it causes great damage to the physical vehicle. Think of the word dis-ease, does it not make you uncomfortable just thinking about it? Stress is the catalyst for many diseases because it affects the body's natural immune system. I would like to reiterate the messages that My Children have been sending to you for as long as you have been; "there is no disease that is natural to this planet and/or to the human race." All diseases were created and inflicted upon the human race for the sole purpose of making you reliant on others for your well being. The dark ages of your planet, of My planet, are rapidly coming to an end. With this final conclusion will be the end of all diseases and dis-eases. There will be no more need for psychiatrists, insane asylums and old folks' homes. Those do not exist in the higher frequencies to which you are all traversing, well, OK... that many of you are now journeying to. In time you will come to recognize your own power, you will wield it as the "Sword of Truth" that it is. There is a time in everyone's life when each Soul will come to understand that all they want to be for themselves, all they need to accomplish, they already are/have. All they need do now is to start remembering that which has been forgotten.

So take a look around you, don't stop reading your newspapers, don't stop listening to the news, do not stop becoming involved and certainly do not stop caring about others. BUT read and listen with great discernment. You have no idea of the amount of light that thoughts, understanding, caring and compassion generate that Creates change. It is true on the other side of the spectrum as well, if you feed fear, if you nurture doubts and insecurities, then that also is Created. Now please, do not become over infatuated with what you see or hear, simple acknowledgment that there are injustices everywhere that need to be corrected will do for starters. Closing your eyes, turning your backs, or ignoring a problem will not make it go away, nor does it correct it. Look, if I wanted you to go around sticking your head in the sand all the time, I would have made you all ostriches. Now mind you, the ostrich is a wondrous creature that is vastly misunderstood by most, it saddens me the labels that are given to certain Aspects of My Creation by those with ignorant belief systems.

Did you know that your planet, which is My planet, has some of the most diverse life forms anywhere in the Universe? Did you know that Earth offers more of a variety of terrains than anywhere else? Did you know that the vast varieties of plant and animal life, I believe now would be a good time to include each of you, all that inhabits the Earth Star planet came from other areas of the universe? That's right, you are amongst the most diversified life forms ever assembled on one orb. Now you may ask about the dinosaurs, animal, plant, etc., life that has been believed to be extinct. Nothing goes extinct. I have had My children save a certain number from your different species and relocate them to an environment somewhere that is especially suited to their well being and evolutionary status. Now many of the species on the Earth will evolve into a new form of themselves, this is within the natural order of any life form's existence, just as you will evolve from physical beings into wondrous beings of pure light. I felt it pertinent to point that little detail out to you at this time because so many things are taken for granted. Too many of My Children rationalize everything and never stop to absorb the splendor of all the magnificent treasures that exist on and within Eden.

While we are on the subject of awareness, let me suggest a practice for you that the indigenous people of Earth have long known and passed on to all their succeeding generations. Watch the animals, become one with them, watch how they behave and where they go, for they instinctively know what to do, what is right and what is in their best interests. They require no teachings in this area. Also please listen to the children, give them credit where credit is due, many of them are acting on their natural instincts. The innocence that you were born with exists in the purity and love of All That Is. That innocence is the closest you will ever feel while living in a physical existence to The Creator. Innocence is a natural response, awareness of the lack of it is the first step to moving into the direction of your Soul's urgings. The Soul Voice will do all that it can to steer you back on the path that leads you into the Unity of The One. The purity of a child can most easily be seen during the time of birth. This is the most wondrous expression of unconditional love, that which exists between an infant and its mother at the moment of birth. Those of you who remember your innocence, which existed before you became aware of the physical realm, will understand what I am speaking of when it comes to the innocence of children.

The defensive posture that so many of you assume is not a natural occurrence in the higher dimensions. This reaction is a self-defense mechanism that you have nurtured along with all your other conditioned responses. You see, in the higher frequencies all is known, the thoughts, intentions and actions of others are not concealed or hidden, there is no need of this. All communications are accomplished through the use of telepathy, so there can be no confusion as to the actual intent of anyone's actions. On Earth in the current times of now, if you were to pay attention to even the most seemingly insignificant of happenings, you would learn much from their interactions with all other currently transpiring events. One event is not separate, yet one event can act independently on its own behalf. When spending that moment in splendor and awe while contemplating what you are now "in awareness" of, observing and understanding the interplay of occurrences, always remember to give thanks to all of The Creation as well as to The Creator for bringing these blessings into your lives. I, too, fall into the category of All of Creation.

One thing is for certain in the times ahead; those of you who are left to witness the unfolding of The Golden Age will become much more aware of their surroundings. You will take pleasure in the simplest of things. You will watch a weed grow and know that it too has the potential to become an object of extreme beauty. Do not discard in the times of continuing your "becoming awareness" all the wondrous life forms that exist below the surface of the Earth's crust. Each mineral, each drop of fossil, every particle of seemingly insignificant matter is connected to the rest of Creation through its frequency vibrations and its purpose of be-ing. Within the oceans you will find "new old" life forms reappearing, you will soon understand the necessity for extremely long incubation periods of many life forms.

You will find out more about the cities that exist under the ocean's surface as well as those life forms who live inside of the planet and the necessity of their being there. For they are your brothers and sisters, those you will once again be united with, not only in Spirit, though. You will be working hand-in-hand with them to build a better world as well as a better more universal version of yourself. The wonders that lie before you are indeed so momentous, it would be hard to know where to begin to bring you up to date, your segregated races have been living in the grasp of darkness for so long. Suffice it to say that the future before you will be nothing like the past you are leaving behind once and for all. The past will serve as guidelines, as teaching tools to all future generations on "WHAT NOT TO DO!"

David – Spiritual Warriors are birthed by Spiritual Awareness. Thank you, God, for bringing awareness to the forefront.

God – Spiritual Warriors are what you each are, it is the refining of these attributes that makes you Great Teachers.

Suzy – It's me, God – hello! As I was reading what you said about awareness – it's so much more than our common concept and use of the word – I kept thinking about the problems caused by poor communication. Often words are interpreted differently by the listener than the speaker meant, and that's when both speak the same language! Especially in vitally important international issues, meanings need to be clearly understood. But are they? There can be unintended – or deliberate – distortion when a third party interprets what the first is saying to the second, who doesn't understand those others' native language. So it seems that for all of us to live together harmoniously and cooperatively, clear communication is essential. How are we going to handle this with so many languages, dialects and slang expressions in addition to lack of education in one's own language?

God – Well, Suzy, I wish I didn't have to say that I'm stumped here, but in a way I am because you want a solution to this dicey situation right now. Since I don't have an "umbrella" solution for making the near countless words in all languages and their derivatives understandable to everyone on Earth, I'm relying on GOOD WILL – actually, GOD WILL, because you're all god or goddess parts of me – to handle this temporarily by BEing in your hearts more so than in your minds. I think that will do it until the translation system that converts all languages in the universe into a common language is operating, and it will be so for all of you who go along with Earth to her high plane of origin. That system is an ingredient of every soul, so that part toward the clear communication you want is already handled. And when all telepathic connections are open between Earth and wherever else, you won't have to rely on words being heard exactly as they're spoken because the intention is clear in your feelings, and in telepathy, there's no way to hide those, you know.

So, is that a satisfactory answer for the moment, until you're actually into it?

Suzy – It sounds promising. Thank you.

God – You're not feeling altogether good about this, are you?

Suzy – It just seems that our current communication, which is often miscommunication, is a really big obstacle to get past so we can do what you said, “BEing in our hearts more so than our minds.” Some of us are doing this, or at least trying our best – I guess not enough of us to turn things around quickly, though.

God – Now, now then, my impatient child! Yes, things would change in the wink of an eye if all my soul parts were doing it, but since they’re not, the next best thing with those slower parts is to let things take their legal course with them. Denying them their legal rights would undermine the system you want to recover, wouldn’t it, and where would your world be then? In anarchy, chaos, pandemonium – a huge mess, that’s where. As more of you remember and use your AWARENESS, things will speed up. The inpouring of LIGHT with the outpouring of LOVE is the bottom line – that combination is the ultimate solution to everyone living in the magnificent abundance and beauty of my beloved Gaia, your Earth homeland. You know this, my child – you do have that awareness!

Suzy – OK, God. I’ll work on that more so I stop being part of the problem and BE a better part of the solution.

God – I’d say “atta girl” but you’d argue about typing it – see, just like I said! I’m here to help, little Suzy, remember that. I wish EVERYONE would remember that!

Suzy – We’re working on it with this book! Ciao for now – you’re holding up production here!

Celest – God, as I see it, it does not matter if a person’s sole contribution to “being the difference” is merely a change that he or she is creating in their lives which will ultimately cause them to see life more clearly, or if it is a quantum leap in understanding Universal Laws. As long as there is an alteration in the individual’s vibration/ frequency in an upscale movement, this enhances the person’s illuminative matter and can cause the minutest matter to begin its ascension as that Soul evolves. So, to me, “being a part of the solution” does not necessarily mean that we should all move at the same accelerated pace as do many evolved Souls. Each Soul must move at Its own pace. That’s it, that’s all I wanted to add, God.

God – Thank you, Celest, for bringing up that point. No, no one needs to feel that they are not doing enough if they are doing all they are able to. Yes, each Soul must move at Its own pace, anything more would be deleterious to the Soul AND the physical vehicle It inhabits. This is what I term, “Soul Ascension.”

Celest – God, I had another thought, perhaps it would be a good idea if you spoke a bit more on the in-pouring and outpouring of Light and Love. I personally believe that in order to have love, one must first have Light. Also, love itself is not enough. It also requires dedication, selflessness, empathy towards all others and a desire and ability to live life to the fullest.

God – Celest, as I have told you before, I KNOW I can always count on you for handing Me a “sticky wicket.” Let Me see how I can explain this simply and understandably. Yes, love does require all those things that you wrote about above. Love is an emotion to some degree, but Love is an intangible energetic form in its own right. Love responds to the same energetic form that it itself is; yet love does not contain dross, it is not heavy, it is not tainted, it is not lust, it is not sex, it is a buoyancy of a state of being. You, yourself, Celest, have on occasion described it as "part of a state of grace." Love can be experienced through all the senses; the sense of touch is an important part of love. Love brings with itself a flowing, magnetic quality which attracts all others who have not been conditioned to "hate." Love is an integral aspect of the music of the ethers in a tangible sense. Without the Love vibration, the musical notes would be stale, listless and discordant.

Love, like Light, cannot exist in the dark; it cannot exist in tumultuous experiences, or in people who are heartless, vain, or deplorably arrogant. Light is the incandescent matter of MY Soul and yours. In this sense, it is the Voice of the Soul, which radiates with such beauty as Voice ascending the musical scale adds Its Voice to all Other Voices in this particular Tapestry. Light may be minuscule within the Soul Matter of many of My Children, but as long as there is a mere flicker there, there is hope for them. The Light of ALL Lights is My everlasting Light, MY Love and My Passion for Creating life and maintaining life everywhere in My universe. My Light is also a Beacon of Light which encompasses all life forms and calls to each Soul to ascend in majesty as each Soul moves progressively to return to Source.

It is when pure love co-joins with pure Light that miracles are birthed. Think of these two energetic qualities as "right hand, left hand." Neither will flourish and arrive at the total apex of itself without the energetic form of the other. It is not that one cannot exist without the other as the Soul arrives at Its Maturity level; it is that with each working in harmony with the other, it then becomes an unstoppable force. And that, dear Child, is as simple as I can make this explanation. You are satisfied?

Celest – Yes, I just wanted to hear YOU say it, God. I think I will just...leave temporarily now.

Our Biographies

Celestial Blue Star - "Celest" is a Pleiadian walk-in and her father is Blue Star. She entered the Earth's dimension on July 26th, 1989. She has been teaching and working with all races of people on the planet ever since then. She is here to also teach the teachers to be all that they can be in order to best serve the God of this Universe as well as the people being taught. Celest has traveled extensively conducting work shops and lectures across the country speaking on many diverse issues. She has taught of the Pleiadian ways and truths, the Universal Laws and disclosing the truth about the Illuminati. Celest has taught people how they can protect themselves from invasive forces. She works with all races of people, those who are walk-ins and those who are not.

Over the years she has written hundreds of lengthy articles pertaining to personal and planetary evolvment. She began the Blue Star Spiritual Counseling Agency and was kept very busy by the people who called her for help. Celest closed the agency down after 7 years because her schedule was so limited in what else she could accomplish in her spare time. She did continue to provide private counseling sessions however until 2005. Celest began "The Awakened Hearts Conferences" and held 3 a year until she became too busy to continue hosting the programs in different states. Among many other things Celest is involved in, she is writing book two of "The Blue Star Trilogy" and co-authoring several other books as well. Celest began the "Blue Star transmissions" on the internet on December, 12th, 1997, at the behest of her father, Blue Star the Pleiadian. Celest, David and Suzy co-hosted their monthly teleconferences until they no longer had the time to do so.

At the time of the publication of this book she had already endured 13 near-death experiences and many, many attacks by dark energies. Celest is a warrior and a warrior-teacher as well. She and her husband David have co-joined their Spiritual energies and work together to do what they can while there is still enough time remaining for the Children of Earth to begin living a better life in a better way. Celest and her husband's websites are listed below.

David of Arcturus - David is a walk-in. He arrived on the Earth Star planet this time around approximately 43 years ago. It was long ago decreed that he along with his wife Celest would once again reunite to work together to help usher in the Golden Age of God. David and his wife have in previous earth incarnations been married a total of eight times, they have a total of 13 children from these previous unions as well. Due to the severity of the times that are currently upon us, they chose not to bring children into their lives during this present incarnation. Although David's origins stem from Arcturus, he has lived life on many other worlds. His approximate age of 157,000 Earth years may seem extraordinary to some, however in universal terms that is considered comparatively young. He is an explorer, a teacher, a student of life, a healer and a Spiritual warrior. He is here at the bequest of the God of this universe to make a difference by be-ing the difference. He teaches by example and he practices what he teaches. He has lived an ordinary life in order to better understand the injustices that have transpired against the human race so that he could draw from these experiences to better teach others. His communiqués with the heavenly hosts are accomplished at Soul level. His wife and he currently have three websites on the internet which were built and are maintained by them. These sites are consistently viewed and have been translated all over the world. The websites are:

"Blue Star the Pleiadian-Blue Star Speaks"

"Awakened Hearts"

"Godumentary"

David of Arcturus has battled against the injustices of the Illuminati and tried to bring awareness to people all over the world who would listen. His wife and he are currently working on a number of controversial books. They have co-hosted the "We the People - Speak Out, One World, One People" teleconferences until the summer of 2007.

A number of years ago David took a much needed respite from everyday life. He stopped and took a hard look at all the madness that was ongoing on the Earth. He began to realize not only his life's true goals; he also started to remember that there is so much more to life than what he had previously conceived. David found that life had far more meaning than he had supposed, it had a purpose, and he had a purpose, far above and beyond what he previously knew. Since then he has reunited with his Higher Self and he has reestablished his connection with All That Is. David is now experiencing life as it was always intended to be. He no longer casts his own shadow and is fulfilling his destiny by be-ing his destiny.

Suzanne (Suzy) Ward - Unlike Celest and David, who know "who they are," Suzy has no conscious awareness of anything she experienced before this lifetime. The dramatic turning point in her ordinary existence came in 1980, when her 17-year old son Matthew died in a vehicle wreck in Panama. She tried to cope with her grief by contacting mediums for news of her son, and all of them told her that when the time was right, she would communicate with him directly. Due partly to 35 years of immersion in Christian dogma and partly to her belief that telepathy is a rare gift and she didn't feel worthy of it, it was hard for her to believe that she and her son would ever talk again, but she never stopped hoping that they would.

Early in 1994, almost 14 years after Matthew died, Suzy heard him speaking to her as clearly as if they were sitting side by side. During the first weeks of recording their long conversations at the computer and receiving the images he sent of himself and his surroundings, she felt both joy and doubt: Was all of this her imagination? When Matthew's messages turned from life in his world to energy, universal laws, mass consciousness, the spiritual hierarchy, the cumulative soul and other topics beyond her comprehension, and he introduced souls from highly advanced civilizations who gave her equally astounding information, she knew this communication wasn't originating in her mind, it was flowing into it.

Matthew told his mother that her profession as journalist was not by chance; it was the experience she needed to organize for publication the hundreds of messages she was receiving from him and the other extraterrestrial souls. Matthew said that in their family's pre-birth agreement, her primary mission was to make this spiritual enlightenment, guidance and encouragement available to all receptive people during this era of unprecedented changes on Earth and in individuals. Thus the four Matthew Books were born - Matthew, Tell Me about Heaven, Revelations for a New Era, Illuminations for a New Era and Voices of the Universe. English language editions have sold in 26 countries and have been translated into nine foreign languages. After publication of the fourth book, Matthew's messages continued and are posted on:

In further sharing of this vital information, Suzy speaks at conferences and to smaller groups, was a panelist on "We the People" teleconferences, is guest on teleconferences and radio programs, and hosts the monthly "Matthew and Friends" show on BBS Internet Radio.

With their family of adopted dogs, Suzy and her husband Bob live in a rural area of SW Washington and will be relocating in accordance with her guidance. Matthew's sister and two brothers and their families live in Latin America.

Professional book reviews

Hi God, Celestial, David, and Suzy,
As I connected with all of you through the pages of your Book, "And Then God Said..." I felt the familiar emotion stir in my heart as God validated that He was there. In your chapter Communication with God, Hatonn is stating to Suzy that by studying something in order to become closer to God, we are reinforcing our separation from God (p.43)! God is already a part of us. Any perceived separation is an erroneous belief system that we carry.

The God Book, as I affectionately call it is full of these gems of perception. While I will not study it, I will let the seeds of wisdom germinate in my heart, creating a beautiful garden where God and I will continue to commune.

This book will be a valuable addition to your archives, Readers.
I highly recommend it.

A word about the upcoming Godumentary.

Celestial Blue Star, David of Arcturus and Suzy Ward (co-author with her son Matthew of the Matthew Books and Messages) have just come out with their new book; "And Then God Said... Then I Said... Then He Said..." in which each of them contributes their own interpretations from God, who asked them to write the book.

The book also contains special messages from Blue Star, Matthew, Hatonn, Melena, Tomas', Serapis Bey, Horiss, Commander Theda, Mother Mary and one other very special unexpected Voice who has asked to be heard.

It is a wonderful tome filed with inspiring talk from God Him(Her)self, and had me captivated from the very first page.

Any preconceived ideas you ever heald about God will most assuredly be dispelled when you read these words straight from the "I AM" Him(Her)self.

After reading this book in its entirety I feel much closer to God. Wow - is it worth it.
